Ph.D. Dissertation Defense Form

Student should bring this form to defense for signatures, and complete the TGS PhD Final Exam form in CAESAR. The candidate should inform all art history faculty members of the date and place of the defense a week before. Candidates may choose to invite specific non-art History faculty or graduate students; or to have an open defense where all current art history graduate students can attend (but not participate). Candidates should inform their primary advisor of their intentions at least two weeks in advance.
